NUMB. 329

The Daily Gazetteer.

FRIDAY, JULY 16. 1736. N° 329.

THE Influence of the Crown over the two Houſes of Parliament ſince the Revolution, hath been loudly complained of by that Party of Men amongſt us, who have always appeared the warmeſt Advocates for arbitrary Power, and the moſt oppreſſive Invaders of the Rights of their fellow ts, whoſe Predeceſſors diſtreſſed and oppoſſed our Deliverer King William, during the whole Courſe Reign, and who have in their own Perſons ap- themſelves the implacable Enemies of our Re- Laws, and Liberties.

rince upon the Throne, who ſtudies to reign in fections of his People, and a Miniſter who plumes in Defiances of having done nothing contrary Laws of his Country, may reaſonably expect ction of Parliament to confirm their Meaſures, Concurrence of Parliament, with a good Prince uſt and honeſt Adminiſtration, is the only way to the King eaſy upon his Throne, and enable the to make a Figure in Europe.

w the Enemies of the Royal Family, and of the y, for they are all the ſame, whatever ſome few nd weak Men, who are the Dupes of the Op- may fanſy, perceive a Majority in both Houſes liament, determined to ſtand by the Proteſtant ion, and not ſuffer the Miniſtry to be torn in as they were in the late Queen's Time, and by e worthy Patriots too, for no other Reaſon than nflexible Adherence to the Succeſſion, and the s of their Country;

therefore give out in Speeches and Libels, that miniſtration is ſupported by Bribery and Cor- , which may be aſſerted of every Miniſtry which Majority in its favour.

w if the preſent Miniſtry diſtinguiſhed itſelf b Cruelty and Oppreſſion, by ſpilling of Blood, pine and Perſecution, and had a Parliament at ck, ready prepared to conſecrate and legitima- ry Act of Violence and Invaſion of the Rights Subject, then we might reaſonably conclude, y were under ſome undue Influence.

the contrary of this is evident to every Man th his Senſes, and is not prejudiced by Paſſion or eal. We live ſecure and eaſy, and enjoy our our own Way of thinking, both in Religion liticks, and are in all Reſpects as free and happy an be under any Frame of Government what-if every private Man will ſet himſelf up for a n, and inſtead of minding his own Affairs, to be a Judge of foreign Treaties and Negotia- he Diſquiſition is endleſs, he is playing at a e don't underſtand, and is as much at a Loſs, as would be who ſhould undertake to play at Cheſs, knowing the Moves.

RE was indeed a Time when the Thing ſpoke nd we had a Miniſtry at the Helm, who ſold nour and Intereſt of their Country to a foreign But even that Miniſtry, infamous as they were, never have made ſuch a Bargain for their Coun- he Project of defeating the Proteſtant Succeſſion been the Equivalent agreed upon between Crime alledged againſt the preſent Miniſter is ry extraordinary Nature. He hath preſided Councils of Britain for fifteen Years, and avert- neral War by a Variety of Expedients, know- the Patriots themſelves confeſs, that his Country in a Condition to engage in a War; and all ſe poor Creatures have to ſay for themſelves, is, took theſe pacifick Meaſures only to preſerve his contrary Objection was made to the glorious y of Queen Anne. They were charged with ging the War, in order to keep their Employ- the Logick of thoſe Times being, that the uance of the War enabled the Miniſtry to enrich ves, and, by providing Places for numerous dients, to ſtrengthen themſelves in Power.

the preſent Miniſter plunged his Country pre- y into a dangerous War, without the Partici- pation of our Allies, he would certainly have been liable to the juſteſt Cenſure upon that Account. It was indeed what the Faction wanted to drive him to, and it was very merry to obſerve in the Courſe of the Debates, the Awkwardneſs of that Grimace with which the Gentlemen Alamode (Anglice) of the old Lay, deplored the diſaſtrous Circumſtances of the Houſe of Auſtria.

THEY knew very well, that a War with France, Spain and Sardinia would ruin our Trade, while the Dutch, obſerving their Neutrality, ran away with it; and their almoſt forgotten Pageant at Rome, would croſs the Alps at the ſame time, and ſtick another Thorn in our Sides. They preſſed our engaging, to have the Pleaſure of ſeeing us vanquiſhed, and an attainted Fugitive placed on our Throne, to guard, by French Politicks and Italian Honeſty, the Conſtitution and Liberty of Britain, from the dangerous and undue Influence of Places and Penſions in the Diſpoſal of the Houſe of Hanover.

AND becauſe the Whigs who lived under arbitrary and tyrannical Reigns, attempted to reduce the exorbitant Power of the Crown, and in Concluſion prevailed, dethroned the laſt Tyrant of the Stuart Race, and adjuſted the Bounds of the Prince's Prerogative, and the Rights of the People; therefore, ſince the Proteſtant Succeſſion has taken Place, the oppoſite Faction, like Wolves in Sheeps Cloathing, common-place all the glorious Speeches of our brave Anceſtors againſt Popery and arbitrary Power, and turn them into Invectives againſt that Family which ſits upon the Throne as the Guardians of our Liberties.

IT is not to be wondered at, that thoſe who meditate the Overthrow of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and the Accompliſhment of a Popiſh Revolution, ſhould uſe all poſſible Endeavours to weaken the Family now reigning. Theſe Gentlemen act a very conſiſtent Part; and whoever will give himſelf the Trouble of reading their Speeches in Parliament, will find, that the chief Complaint they have againſt the Influence of the Crown, is becauſe they can't bring about another Revolution.

THE Revolution (ſay theſe noble Patriots) under our glorious Deliverer King William, could never have been effected, if King James could have influenced a Parliament in his Favour, ſupported by Riot Acts, ſeptennial Laws, &c. ergo what is the natural Inference to be drawn from this Objection? Is it not this? pray, Gentlemen, let us have the ſame Chance for bringing about a Popiſh Revolution, as you had to compleat a Proteſtant one, —— without any of theſe Difficulties and Diſcouragements thrown in our Way.

THE Danger to which the Kingdom, and all that is dear to us as Engliſhmen and Proteſtants, ſtands expoſed, is from an increaſing Minority of Jacobites, aided and abetted by diſappointed Patriots and luke-warm Friends, and not from a Majority of Gent'emen in the Intereſt of the Royal Family, who are their Equals upon any Ground in England, and as little to be ſuſpected of ſacrificing the Liberties of their Country for a Place, as their Accuſers are of any Inclination to preſerve them.

Lincoln's-Inn. WM. PRYNN.

Dublin, July 6. On Thurſday laſt, being the Firſt Inſt. the following Hymn of Thankſgiving for our Delivery from Popery and Slavery, by the Victory of the Boyne, 1690, was ſung at St. Catherine's Church.

I.

WHEN Iſrael fought
The promis'd Land,
The Reſt by bounteous Heav'n decreed,
What mighty Wonders there were wrought
In Jordan, by Jehovah's Hand,
In their exalted Song we read.
Thy Pow'r another Jordan owns,
Thy Aid another Iſrael boaſts,
This Day affords an equal Theme,
We meet, like Judah's grateful Sons,
O Lord of Hoſts,
To praiſe thy Name.

II.

Tyrannick Sway
Had proudly ſwell'd
Its Waves, the Land to overſpread.
A ſecond Joſhua leads the Way
To Liberty, when ſoon repell'd,
The raging Torrent backward fled.
Confuſion ſeiz'd th' embattl'd Ranks
That hop'd thy Leader to withſtand;
Soon as he wav'd his flaming Sword,
Diſmay'd they fly Bovinda's Banks,
At thy Command,
Tremendous Lord!

III.

From the hard Yoke
Of Bondage eas'd,
When the glad Tribes in Triumph paſs'd;
Thus the great Chief to Iſrael ſpoke,
"Here let a Monument be rais'd
"Which ſhall to future Ages laſt.
Since Wonders wrought for us demand,
Like glorious Monuments, to prove
A Publick Senſe of Publick Good,
Long may * the growing Pillar ſtand
High rais'd above
Bovinda's Flood.

IV.

So to their Sons
Let Parents tell,
When they the ancient Pile behold,
When they enquire, † What mean theſe Stones?
That here Jehovah came to quell
Proud Tyranny in Days of Old.
O God, from whom all Mercies Spring,
Freedom and Truth to thee we owe,
For theſe they name we here adore,
For theſe let all the Grateful ſign
Thy Praiſes Now,
And Evermore.

Advertiſement concerning this Book.

This Maſterpiece of religious Policy was publiſhed Years ſince, in Latin, French, and Dutch: Mr. Johnſon a Bookſeller at Amſterdam, bought one of them at Antwerp among other Books, and afterwards reprinted it. The Jeſuits being informed that he had purchaſed this Book, demanded back from him; but he had then ſent it to Holland to the Society, who lived at Amſterdam, hearing it ſoon after, to a Catholick Bookſeller, by Name Van Iſſelt. Schipper was printing a Book which concerned the Jeſuits, replied, that if it was only The Rules of the Society, he need not be under any Concern; but deſired he would inform himſelf what it was. Being told by the Bookſeller, that it was The Secret Inſtructions of the Society, the good Father shrugging up his Shoulders, and knitting his Brow, ſaid, he ſaw no other Remedy but denying that this Piece came from the Society. The Reverend Fathers however thought it adviſeable to purchaſe the whole Edition, which they did after did, ſome few Copies excepted; from one of which it was afterwards reprinted, with this Account prefixed, that there ſaid to be taken from two Roman Catholicks of Credit.
